

cradle	What means "to hold something in one's hands or arms"?
dodge	What means "to avoid something by moving quickly aside"?
hesitate	What means "wait a moment"?
knead	What means "rolling and mixing dough with one's hands"?
prance	What means "to walk in a lively manner like a dance"?
prickle	What means "a tingling feeling of dread or excitement"?
saucer	What means "a small shallow dish"?
vendor	What means "someone who sells something usually at a market"?
ware	What means "something being sold"?
metaphor	What suggests a comparison without using the word like or as?

simile	What states a comparison directly by using the word like or as?
metaphor or simile?	Juan's hair bounced like flapping blackbird wings.
metaphor or simile?	Rosalina's hair fell like a dark, shiny blanket over her shoulders.
metaphor or simile?	The Lord is my Shepherd.
metaphor or simile?	You, O Lord, are a shield about me.