

cap-

Latin root
meaning head

cape

n. a headland which juts out into the water; a garment which fastens at the neck

caparison

n. a decorative head covering and harness for a horse

captain

n. the head or leader of a ship or organization capitalism

n. an economic system in which businesses are privately owned and operated by the heads of a companies

decapitate

v. to cut off the head of somebody or something capitulate

v. to surrender; to give one ' s head to the enemy

cap

n. a covering for the head

capital

n. chief; a city that is the seat of government

recapitulate

v. to go over the main points or headings of something capricious

adj. likely to change one ' s mind quickly and make sudden unexpected changes