

mitt-, miss-

Latin root
meaning to send

admissible

adj. able to sent as evidence in court

commissioner

n. somebody sent by a commission to carry out prescribed duties or tasks

missile

n. a warhead sent by a rocket through the air

missionary

n. somebody sent to another country by a
church

missive

n. a letter or other
written document
sent to communicate

permit

v. to allow something
or send permission
for it

remittance

n. money sent as payment for merchandise
or services

smite

v. to send somebody
or something a hard
blow

submissive

adj. giving in or tending to give in to the demands
sent by others

transmit

v. to send something
from one person, thing, or place to another